PRESS RELEASE

THE ORGANISATIONAL SUCCESS OF THE CGIL TRADE UNION NATIONAL ASSEMBLY KICKS OFF THE FULL SEASON OF EVENTS AT THE PALACONGRESSI DI RIMINI.

Rimini, 16 February 2022 –Back to full business as usual at the Palacongressi di Rimini, as the successful national assembly of the CGIL trade union gets underway.

The trade union assembly gathered 1,097 delegates to Rimini during the three-day meeting, attracting over 3,000 people to the hotels and public establishments in the area.

Once again, Rimini proves itself to an ideal congress destination for national conferences scheduled by trade unions and political parties. The entire system inherits an important tradition and with the ongoing regeneration of the city, important developments are in store.

In addition to the steady flow of corporate meetings, guaranteeing the Palacongressi pre-Covid capacity levels, soon it will be the turn of the 49th National AMCLI Congress - Italian Clinical Microbiologists Association - which will be hosted from 26 February to 1 March. Over 800 attendees are expected in the city for the event.

As Spring draws near, from 10 to 12 March, the venue will open the XXII National SIDP Congress - Italian Society of Periodontology. The event will also be a preview of what's to come at the Expodental exhibition, scheduled in Rimini from 19 to 21 May. Further proof of the consolidation of economic trade fairs and events in our area. 1,000 participants are expected at the national congress

Other events scheduled for the end of March in Rimini include: Sintonie. High-End Video Exhibition on March 26/27, the 23rd edition of the most famous Italian event dedicated to the latest trends in audio systems. It will be followed by MIR Tech (Rimini Expo Centre, March 27-29), the only fair in Italy dedicated to audio, video, and lighting technologies for concerts, shows, events and locations.
